

The CSPB was created in 2010, the first board to be set up for a Public Service Pensions Scheme.

It has no decision making powers.

The Public Service Pension Act 2013 put the CSPB on a formal legal format in April 2015.

The CSPB's function is to hold to account the Scheme Manager for the delivery of the civil service pension arrangements.

Our role is to promote high standards of administration for the CSPA by advising, influencing, challenging and assisting the Scheme Manager.

Body/Person	Role	Principal responsibilities	Legislation or policy
Minister for the Cabinet Office	Scheme Manager	The Scheme Manager is responsible for managing the scheme and ensuring that it runs within given regulations and policy.	Public Service Pensions Act 2013
Civil Service Pension Board	Assisting the scheme manager in delivering the Civil Service pension arrangements	Providing support and constructive challenge to the Cabinet Office as scheme manager. Meeting requirements set out in TPR's guidance	Public Service Pensions Act 2013

- Non Executives
- Scheme member reps
- Employer reps

It works with a wide range of stakeholders to review issues including: BM's, Cabinet Office Pensions Team, Civil Service Trade Unions, Employers, Other Public sector pension boards, tPR, TPA, Scheme Members.

What does the CSPB look at?

The CSPB reviews a wide range of areas including:

MyCSP and other providers' performance

Gathering intelligence to improve service delivery

Key risks to the Scheme

Benchmarking data

Data quality