3. When you are submitting an injury benefit review you must enclose a file containing the documents in the list below. Each document must be flagged as shown below. You must not send any personal or other files to Capita Health Solutions. We will not consider any information that is not flagged.

If, in exceptional circumstances, you cannot provide any of the documents you must explain why.

We cannot provide the advice you need unless the forms are fully completed and all the documents (shown in the checklists in the supplementary forms) are supplied. If we have to return the papers because items are missing or forms are incomplete, we will identify the deficiencies and return the papers to you so that you can correct the matter and resubmit the papers. We will make a charge for this each time we have to return an incomplete referral.
